

Getting to East Riding College Trade Union Studies Centre by Road via the A1079

- Travel to Hull down the A1079 (A1174 from Beverley) to the large Kingswood Roundabout at the northern boundary of the City.
- Turn right at this roundabout (straight on from the A1174) following the signs to the City Centre.
- Follow this road (Beverley Road) for 3 1/2 miles into the City Centre. Keep travelling straight on at each of the many junctions. Beverley Road has bus lanes that are active between 7am to 9:30am inbound and 4pm to 6:30pm travelling out; these are often policed so beware!
- When you reach the final set of lights before the City Centre the Hull Daily Mail office is to your right, the Hotel Campanile to your left. Carry straight on. As you pass the large gold building on your right you need to be heading for the right hand lane before the busy A63 roundabout. This is an unusual junction that is controlled by lights.
- Follow the signs to the Ice Arena, straight across this junction past the Whittington & Cat public house. Turn right at the first mini roundabout and then take the right hand fork at the second (into Lister street). Bear left around St James's Square - The Centre is in front of you.

Parking at present is on street; we are working on better arrangements that will be posted here as soon as we have further information.

East Riding College TU Studies Centre
24-30 St James Street
Hull
HU3 2DH
01482 382512